

DePaul University Honors Program
Honors Student Government
Living Learning Community Representative Application

Are you part of the Honors Living Learning Community (LLC)? Are you interested in being more involved in the Honors LLC and Honors Student Government (HSG)? If so, consider applying to serve as an Honors Living Learning Community Representative.

The Honors LLC Representatives work together to host quarterly events for all students in the Honors LLC to enhance the residential experience and foster connections among Honors students. Representatives serve as a liaison between the Honors LLC, HSG, and Honors Program staff to relay student feedback about the Honors Program curriculum and co-curricular programming.

Honors Living Learning Community Representative Duties and Responsibilities:

- Demonstrate exceptional student leadership, build connections within the Honors Living Learning community, and embody Honors Student Government's core values
- Attend Honors Student Government meetings.
- Serve as liaison between the Honors LLC and the Honors Student Government
- Promote events and activities sponsored by HSG and the Honors Program to the Honors LLC at meetings and other forms of communication, including flyers (provided by the Honors Program)
- Encourage residents in the Honors LLC to participate in events and activities sponsored by the Honors Program and HSG
- Work closely with HSG's Service, Social and Academic Committee Co-Chairs to encourage service, social, and academic engagement within the Honors LLC
- Provide HSG Academic Representatives and Honors Program staff with feedback about the Honors Program curriculum and co-curricular programming
- Assist the Honors Ambassadors in welcoming prospective students to the DePaul Honors Program community
- Host and plan quarterly Honors LLC study sessions during finals week
- Host and plan at least 1 event quarterly for the Honors LLC that focuses on, but not limited to, at least one of the following themes:
  - Building community within the Honors LLC
  - Providing Honors Program or DePaul information to students in the Honors LLC
  - Engaging students in the Honors LLC with events and activities sponsored by the Honors Program or HSG
