

The 2024 Election, Voting, & the Media

Tuesday, Oct 15th at 4:00p.m.

HWLC, 7th floor, Chicago Author's Room

Join us for this event where Chicago professors will discuss voting, marketing, and the media. There will be a short Q&A after each talk.

4:00pm Bruce I. Newman, Prof of Marketing, founder & editor-in-chief of Journal of Political Marketing, DePaul University: Political Marketing and the U.S. 2024 Election Winner

4:45pm Christina R. Rivers, Associate Professor of Political Science, DePaul University: Voter Eligibility, Registration, & Local Elections

5:30pm Dick W. Simpson, Political Science Emeritus, UIC: What to Know About the 2024 Election

6:15pm Michael A. Deas, Assistant Professor, Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism: How to Distinguish Between Opinions & Facts in Media

Follow CPL

Voting Machine Demonstration

Tuesday, Oct 15th at 2:00p.m.

Harold Washington Library Center, Lobby

Do you have questions about the 2024 election? The Chicago Board of Elections will demonstrate and discuss how a voting machine works from 2-3:30pm in the Grand Lobby on the ground floor.

Please join us after in the Chicago Author's Room on the 7th floor where Chicago professors will talk about voting and the media. See the back of this flyer for the schedule of presentations that will take place from 4-7pm.

Harold Washington Library Center
400 S. State St.
Chicago, IL 60605

Ask your librarian
or visit chipublic.org
for more information.

Follow CPL

